FRONT & CENTERPIECE

Bring a splash of style to your home's front door

Written by Jennifer Guest

WHEN WAS THE LAST TIME YOU changed the color of your front door? If you're like many of us, chances are it's the same as when you bought your home. Yet changing the color of your front door is a simple and inexpensive way to create a dramatic impact on the appearance of your home.

"Homeowners who are adventurous with color inside their homes are often reserved when it comes to choosing paint colors for their exteriors," says Bonnie Rosser Krims, a nationally recognized paint color specialist and author of The Perfectly Painted House: A Foolproof Guide for Choosing Exterior Paint Colors. "With exterior paint, you're making a real statement to everyone who passes by."

When selecting a color for your front door, consider the colors of your home's
